Kim,
This year has been so neat, it went by so fast I couldn't believe it (that's good because I was just a little sophomore anyway). I want to congratulate you for getting the lead in the mace man and for all the other play you were in, you really did a great job. Thanks for being such a great friend, you always listened to all my lull and everything I couldn't understand how you possibly lived through it all.
In doing about always making you late for Bongo's class at the first of the year but that's a girl for ya!
Thanks for writing all these letters for me, I really only needed two of them after all!
You've got to be good this summer so you can come back next fall and really stir up this boring school and all the teachers. If you keep up the good work you doing now I know you'll succeed in life and by putting in as much to life as you are now I know you'll get out of it too. Be good!

Being us.
Being you alone and me alone,
and together, belonging.

Together beginning,

And while each becomes a part of the whole,
each remains uniquely himself.

A small part—a single strand
in the tapestry of us.
But even though the strand is small,
what we, as individuals, are

Each makes a print,
a print among the crowd,
a print that never blends or fades.

SPORTS

I take pride in my team and in myself.
I want to work hard,
to build myself into someone.
I want to belong
because my small part is important, if only to me.
I want to help fight and help win.

We all need to learn—
I need to learn the taste of defeat;
only then will I better myself.
I want to grow tall through falling and learning to pick myself up again.
I want to know how to fight to win.
I want to know pride.

R-R-R-E-D, M-M-M-E-N

R-E-D-M-E-N, Redmen!

R-R-R-E-D, M-M-M-E-N,

R-E-D-M-E-N, Redmen!

When the Redmen, our team, is in the game,
And the whole school is fighting to guard its name,

And the Reds yell like warriors as the team goes by,

There's a killing in the old town tonight,
When Cedar's banners are waving in triumph
o'er the hill,

And Cedar's cohorts are cheering,
For the Reds have made their kill, (Rah Rah)
This day is ours, ours, forever, let victory never fade,

Then rise, rise and cheer, boys, 'til the winning score is made.

Cheerleaders . . . create Crimson and Gold unity.

Adding their special talents to school life were the dedicated cheerleaders, led by Marie Bladen, Head; Sheri Major, Karen Morris, Debbie DeMille, Jolynn Stratton, and Lori Bird. They spent many hours devising cute, original ways to build spirit. The good attitude and enthusiasm of the student body and faculty must be attributed, in part, to their fine job.

Cheerleaders . . . radiate student participation.

Also adding their part to school spirit were the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. They supported the J. V. teams well and their enthusiasm was really appreciated by the whole school. Head: Beth Myers, Susan Rice, Helen Holmes, and Sally Roberts. Another team supporter was Shelly Schexnayder. Her sparkling spirit added greatly to the games.

Instrumental Music ... teaches students the value of achievement.

With Mrs. June Larsen as conductor, the orchestra has done an excellent job of displaying instrumental talent this year. They have represented CHS well by performing in concerts both at home and in various other musical activities throughout the state. Each individual should be commended for his efforts in this area.

Darrell Matthews, director, has devoted much time to make this year's efforts successful for the band. Each student has also worked to make every activity not only a display of talent, but also fun and exciting. The highlight of this year's activities was the trip to San Diego.

Stage Band . . . strives individually for group-improvement.

Working under the direction of Darrell Matthews the stage band has provided unique entertainment during various activities throughout the year. Some of these activities included playing for dances and participating in the traveling assembly.

Choruses . . . challenge their own success.

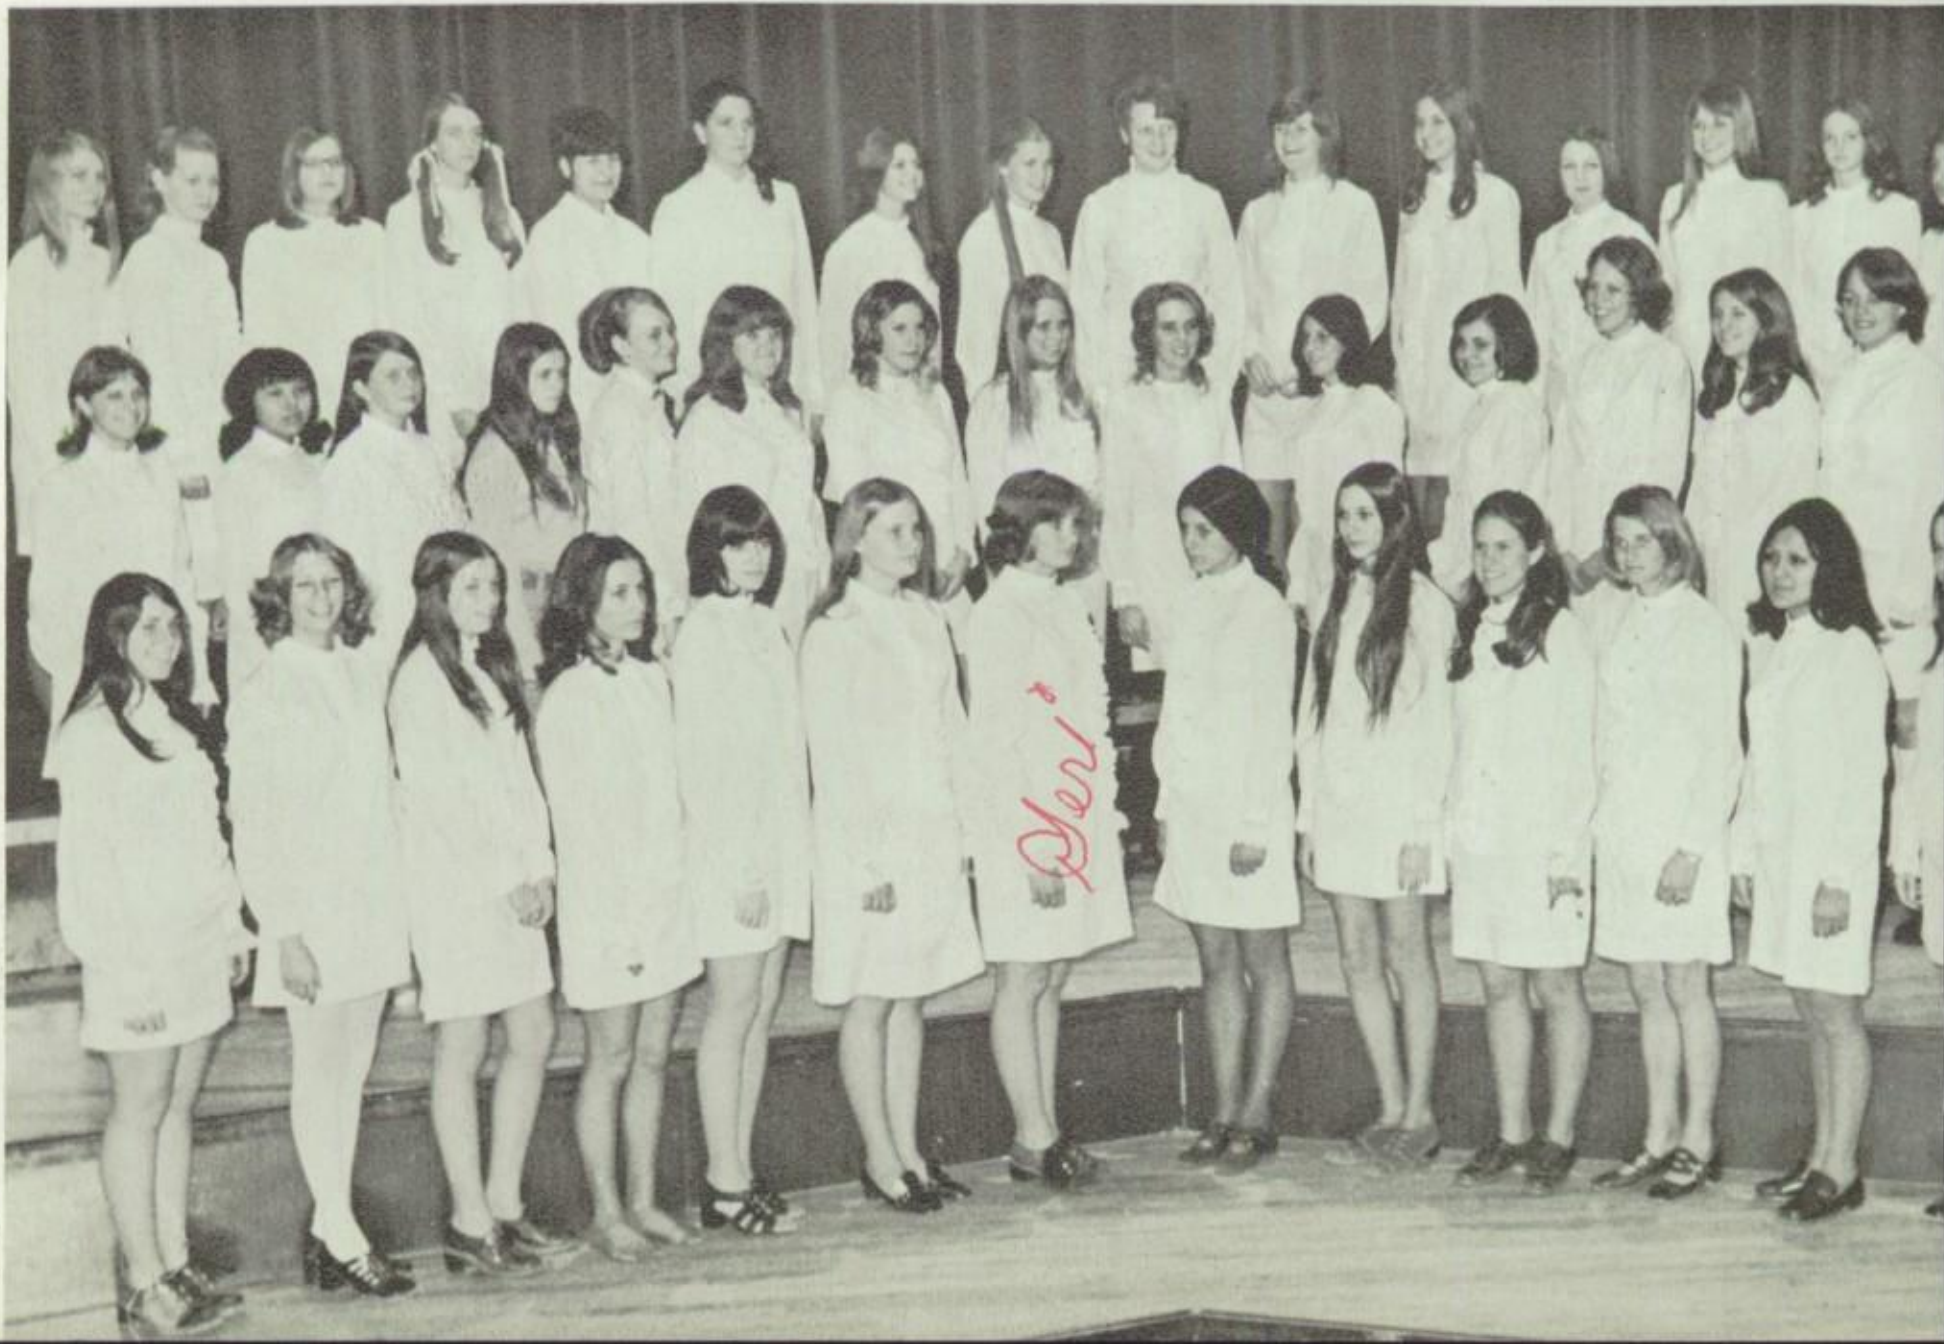

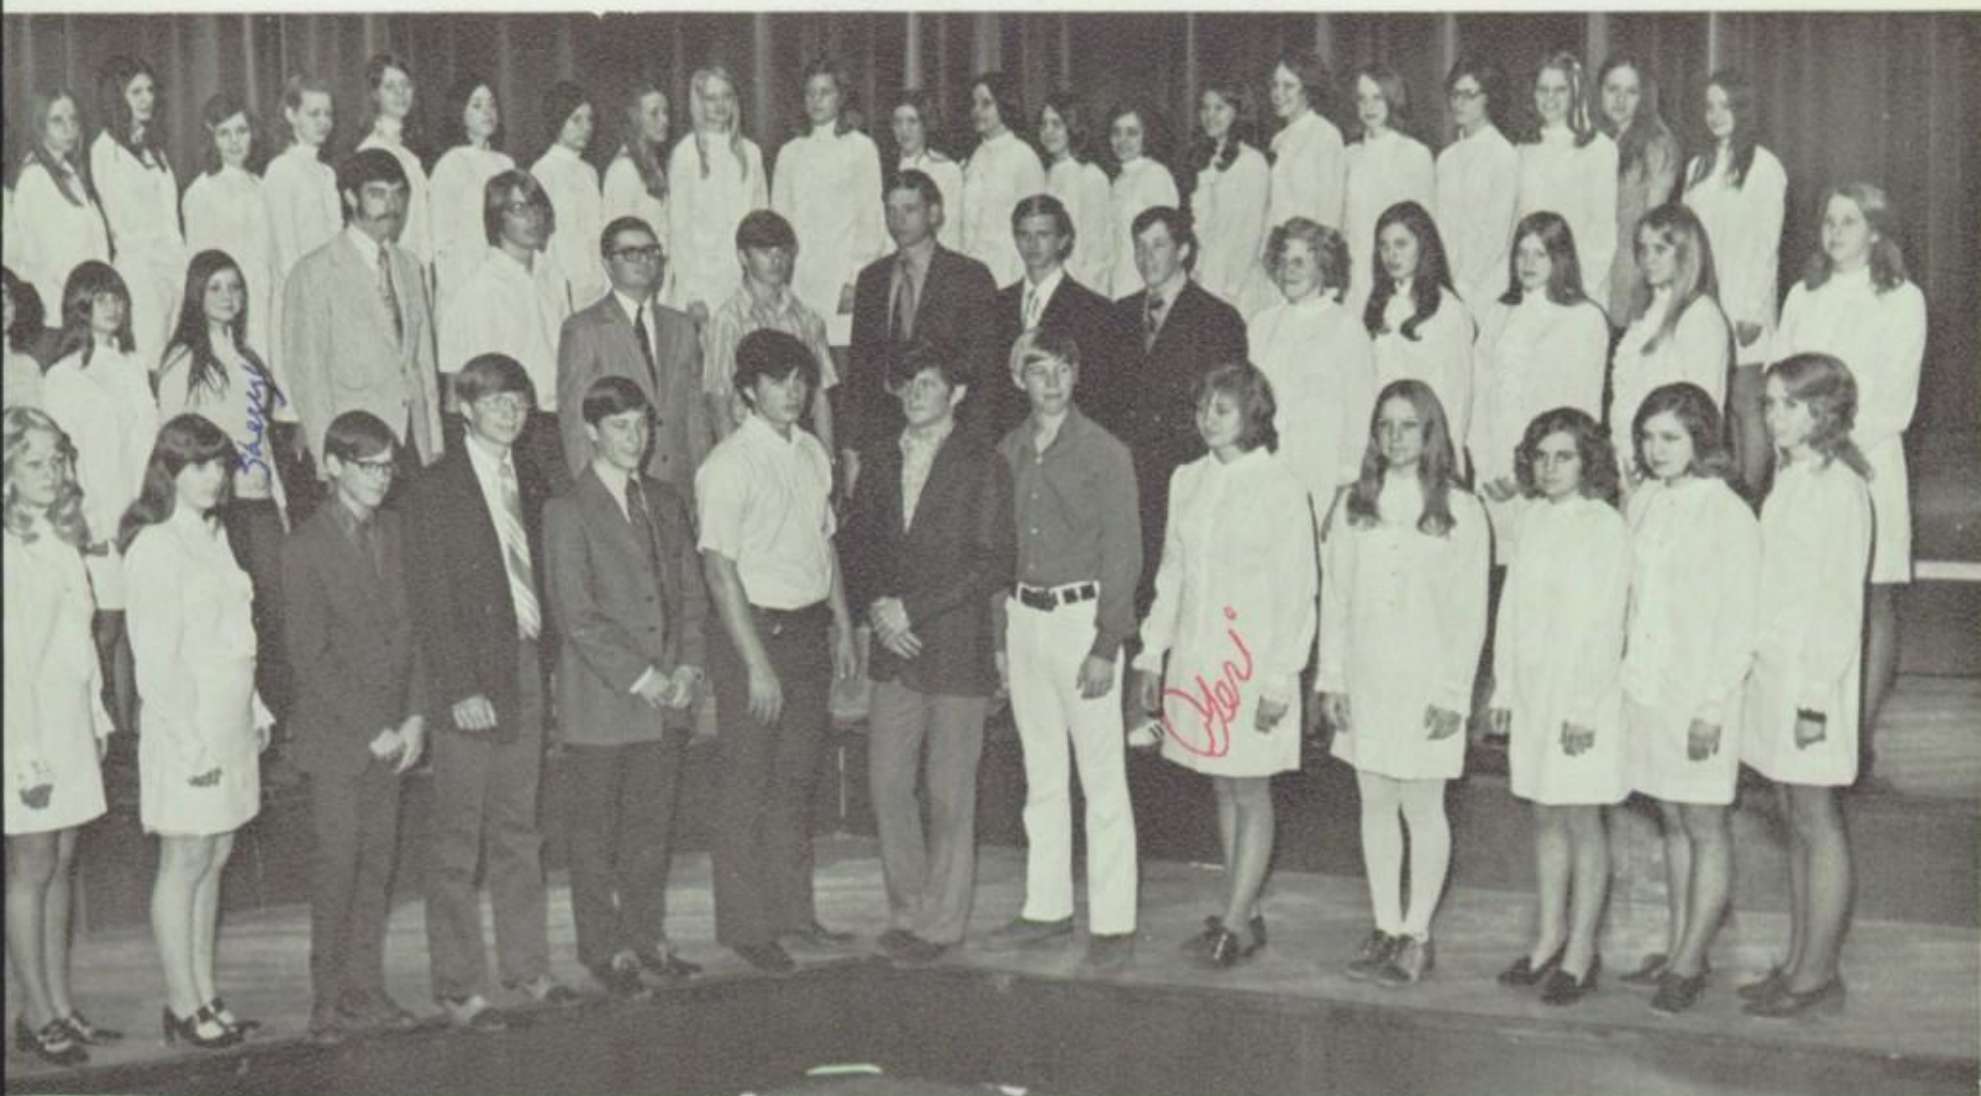

Mrs. Roper has led the Madrigals, a new group at CHS, through a year of striking success. They have represented the school well by taking part in both school and community-sponsored activities.

A combination of both individual and group effort has brought the A Cappella another year of success. With Mrs. Roper as director, they have participated in several new and challenging activities and have traveled throughout the state to demonstrate their talent.

Choruses . . . create musical moods.

Musical talent has been displayed by the students involved in Girls' and Mixed Choruses. They have put on many well-prepared concerts. These concerts were in tune with the season and were enjoyed by many townspeople. For some, singing in these Choruses was their first musical training; they advanced well with the helping hand of Mrs. Shirley Roper.

Cedarian Staff ... works to capture moments for others.

Lu Anne Judd and Karen Hamilton, Cedarian co-editors, have worked hard to plan and create a memorable yearbook for CHS students. Many hours have been put into drawing layouts, writing headlines, and typing copy. Class representatives Nellie Gai Hart, Laurel Middleton, Sharla Fiack, Connie Seaman and Adele Urie have each added to the creativeness of the 1972 Cedarian. Frank Petty, business manager, has contributed a great deal to the financial success of the yearbook. Mr. Bohman, Mr. Shirley and Mr. Pensis have all been helpful in offering suggestions on how to improve the quality of the Cedarian.

YAY GRAPHICS - BEST CLASS AT LHS

Journalism . . . reports happenings

This year the Cedar Post Staff has done an excellent job in presenting a weekly paper of information about school activities and the interesting sidelights of school life. The Cedar Post is a very high-standard newspaper, due particularly to the fine leadership of Sonja Sandberg, editor; Jim Butler, assistant-editor; and Mrs. Amend, advisor. Mrs. Amend also taught the Journalism Class; they learned about the fundamentals of newspaper writing and contributed regularly to the Cedar Post also. Working long, hard hours in preparing the Cedar Post, football and basketball schedules and other assignments was the Graphic Arts class. Mr. Shirley instructed this class and helped them learn to produce professional results.

Clubs . . . grasp new and

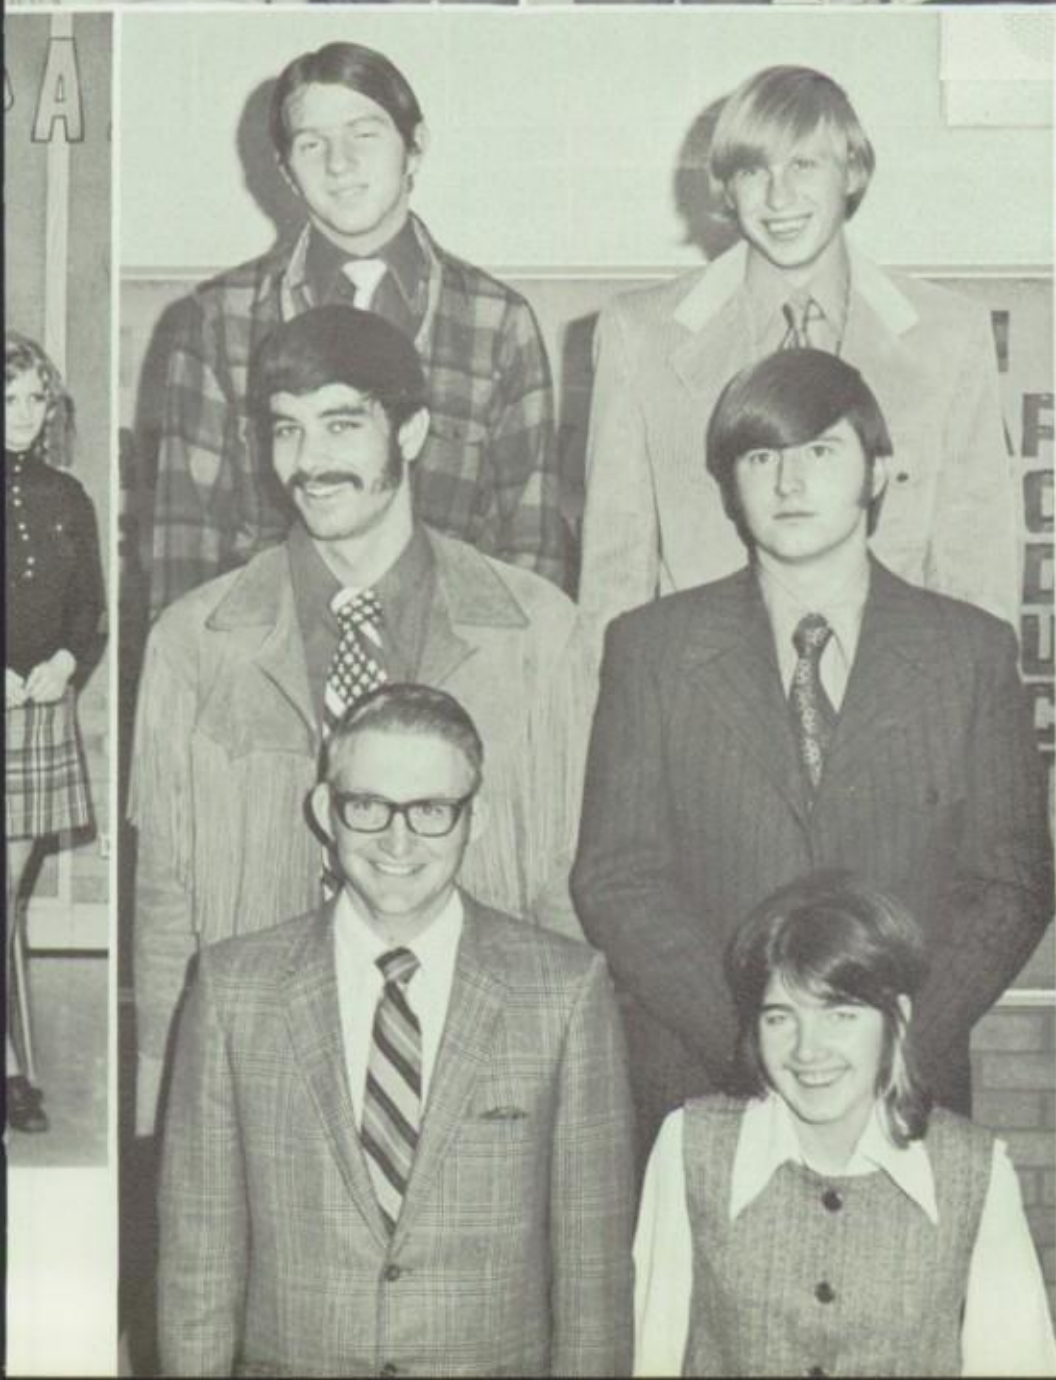

The Thespians, as a dramatic organization, have used the individual talent of its members and the club to contribute to a successful year at Cedar High. Lynn Bills, president; and Miss Davis, advisor; have headed the club.

The French Club, newly organized, has found the French language and customs an interesting outlet to many activities. Mrs. Amend, advisor; and Richard Bellows, president, have directed the club this year.

Acting as president of the German Club, Carla Prows, along with Mr. Matthews, advisor, have made the club an exciting and educational experience for those interested in learning the German language.

exciting experiences.

The Forensics Club, with Mrs. Pryor, advisor, has participated in various speech and debate meets throughout the state and has represented CHS well. The effort of the club has said much for the academic ability of the Redmen.

The Indian students at Cedar High have found the Kiva Club an involving and interesting experience dealing with personal objectives. Julie Casuse has served as president with Mr. Miller as advisor for the past year.

Mr. Prince, advisor, and Tom Lambert, president, have led the DECA Club to many educational activities and events the past year and have done a fine job of representing CHS in this field.

Clubs . . . challenge members

Under the direction of Mrs. Brown, advisor, and David Stapley, president, the Riding Club has experienced interesting lectures to help them increase their riding ability.

The Rodeo Club has offered its members a chance to compete in events at various rodeos throughout the year. Their president was LaMont Miller.

Working hard to assist the students of Cedar High, the Snack Bar Staff has done a great job of serving lunch as well as breakfast.

to promote their talents.

The Stage Crew has contributed to the success of many of the assemblies and plays this year. This group of students deserve a special thanks for their efforts.

Clubs . . . enthusiastically involve themselves in activities.

This year the Hiking Club planned several activities, including hikes in the famous scenic areas of southern Utah and participating in Homecoming activities by entering a float in the parade. There are many students at CHS who are interested in our beautiful environment and the Hiking Club provided an opportunity for them to enjoy it. Janet Jolley was the president and Mr. Leigh was the advisor.

The Modern Dance Club was organized this year and provided an opportunity for those interested in modern dancing to meet and exchange ideas and methods. Elaine Nelson was the advisor and SueAnn Jones was the president.

Nike . . . works to improve school and community.

Nike Club has only been at CHS for a year, but they have worked hard in this brief time to establish themselves as one of the most unique clubs on campus. Their main objective is service to school and community. Mrs. Jeanne Pryor, their advisor, contributes much to the success of their club. The officers are: Nellie Gai Hart, president; Gail Callison, vice president; Suzanne Manzione, secretary; Karla Prows, historian.

Homecoming

Representing Cedar High as Homecoming Royalty were Allyson Averett, Homecoming Queen, Gayla Bulloch, first attendant, and Sheri Major, second attendant.

... "Come Touch the Sun."

Homecoming at Cedar High School was exceptionally outstanding this year. The snake dance, assembly, bon-fire, football game, presentation of royalty, homecoming dance and parade all contributed to the successfulness of homecoming 1971.

Under Valeni Leavitt, homecoming chairman, the theme "Come Touch The Sun" was selected to plan the activities around.

Float competition was won by the Senior Class with Lani Twitchell acting as chairman. The Seminary float took second place and the Thespians won third.

Homecoming . . . unlocks yesterdays' memories.

Harvest Ball . . . "Super Star."

As the first formal dance of the year, the Harvest Ball drew a large crowd. Debbie De-Mille and Marie Bladen served as dance chairmen while Rhea Nelson and Kareen Christensen were in charge of the entertaining assembly.

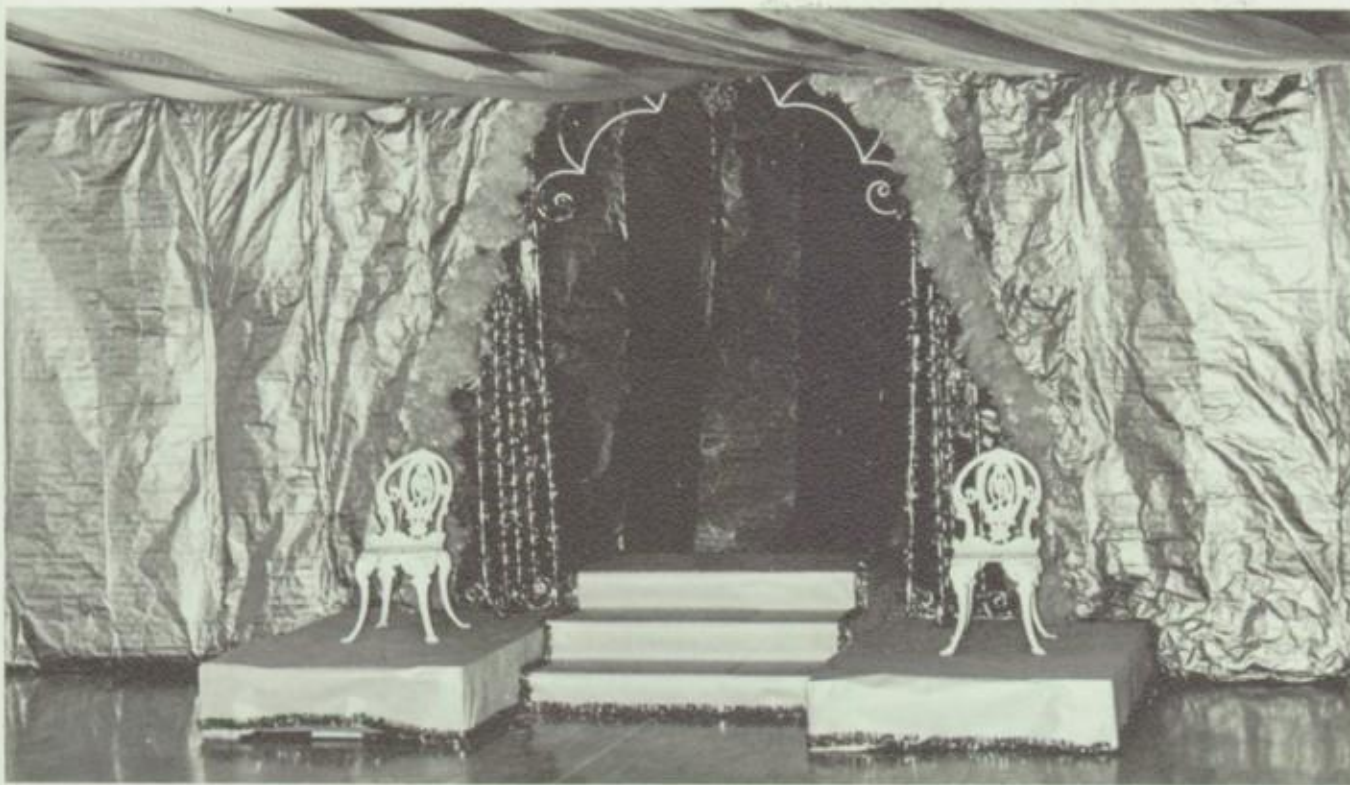

Christmas . . . brings many activities to CHS.

The girls' and boys' organizations did a good job in scheduling the Christmas activities. First prize went to the Pep Club in tree competition. The Christmas banquet was also a great success.

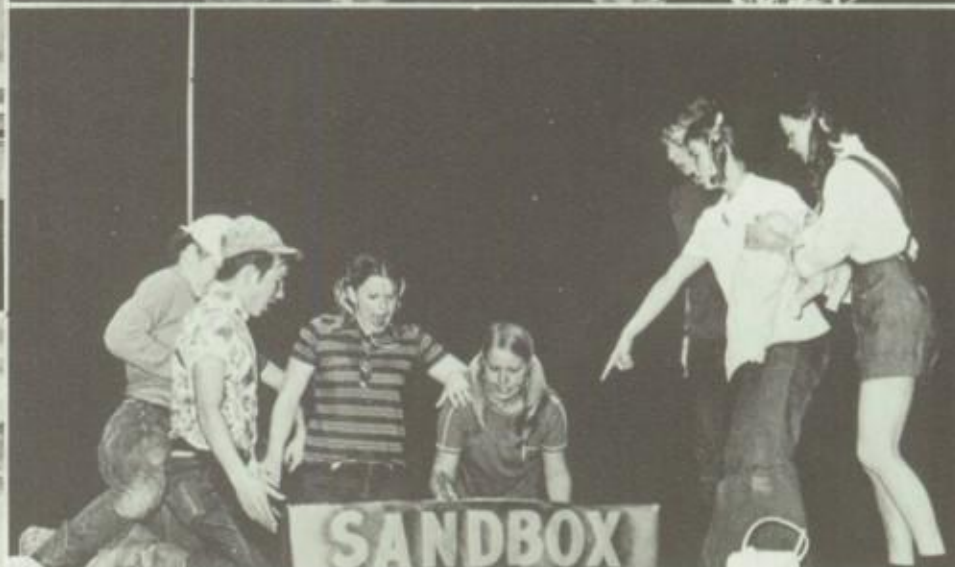

Senior Hop ... "The Long and Winding Road."

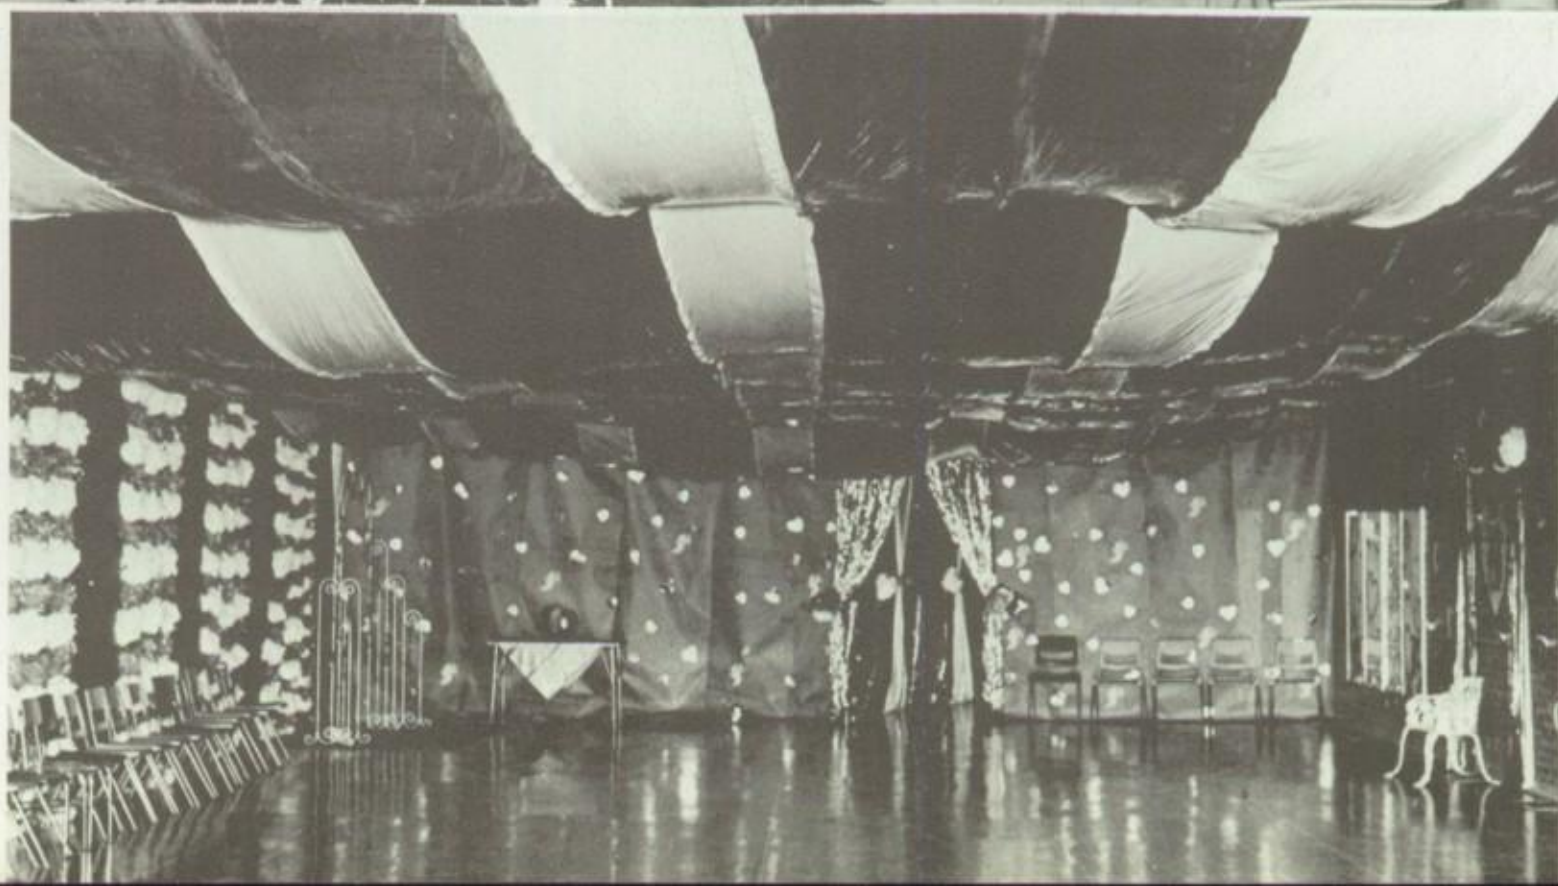

The Senior Hop was made a great success by Allyson Averett, Marilyn Allen and Dean Bickmore. The colors chosen for the dance were blue and green. The theme was "The Long and Winding Road."

Sweethearts' Ball ... "One Love."

Vicki Halsey, chairman; and Sheri Major, co-chairman, displayed and carried out well-planned ideas for the annual Sweethearts' Ball sponsored by the Suah Kahne PepClub. The colors were red and silver and the theme was "One Love." All members of the club participated in the assembly under the direction of Julie Casuse.

Sox Spree ... "You've Got a Friend."

"You've Got a Friend" was chosen as the theme for the Sophomore Sox Spree under the direction of Elaine Braithwaite, chairman, and Pat Hulet co-chairman. Colors chosen for the dance were yellow and orange. Bob Platt worked hard as chairman of the assembly. He used the theme as a guideline, which made the total effort a success.

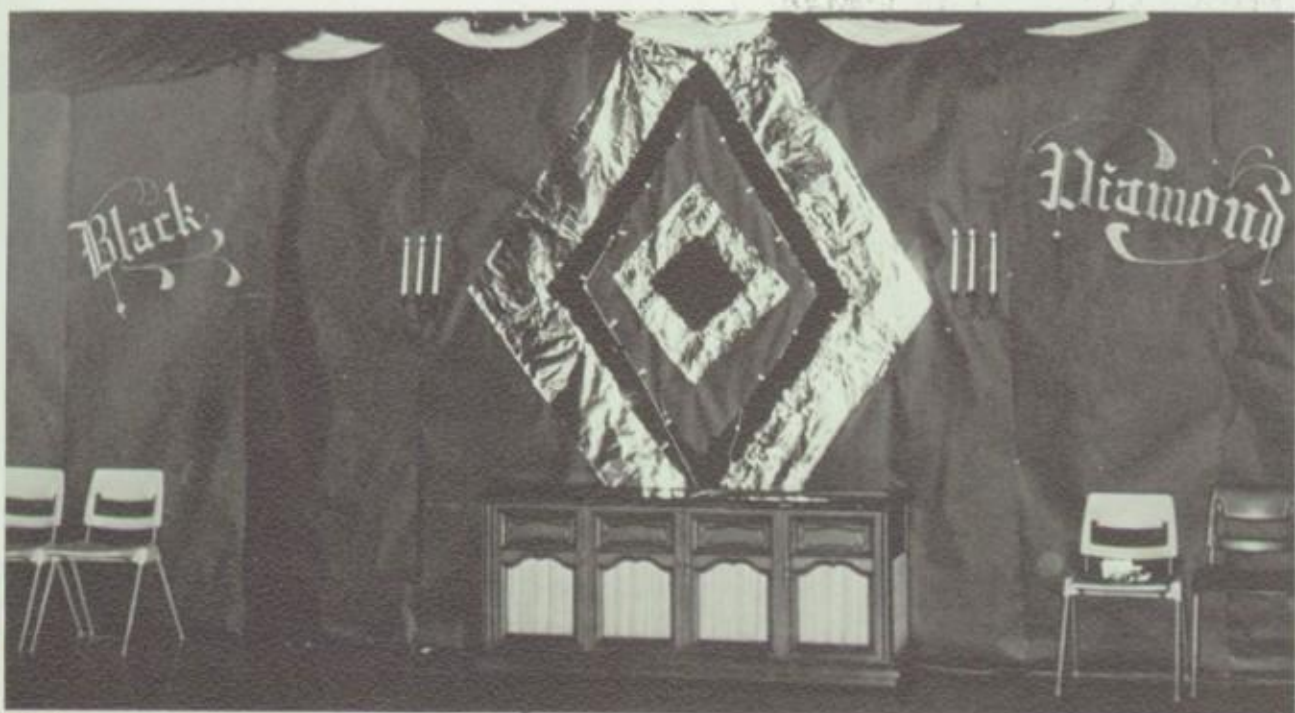

Junior Prom . . . "Morning Has Broken."

One of the most original, creative dances for 1971-72 was the Junior Prom. Brian Terry, General Chairman, spent many hours writing and directing the assembly. He also sang the theme song in the assembly and at the dance. Carol Spencer and Pat Smith, Dance Chairmen, also worked many long hours on dance decorations.

Preference Ball . . . "Black Diamonds."

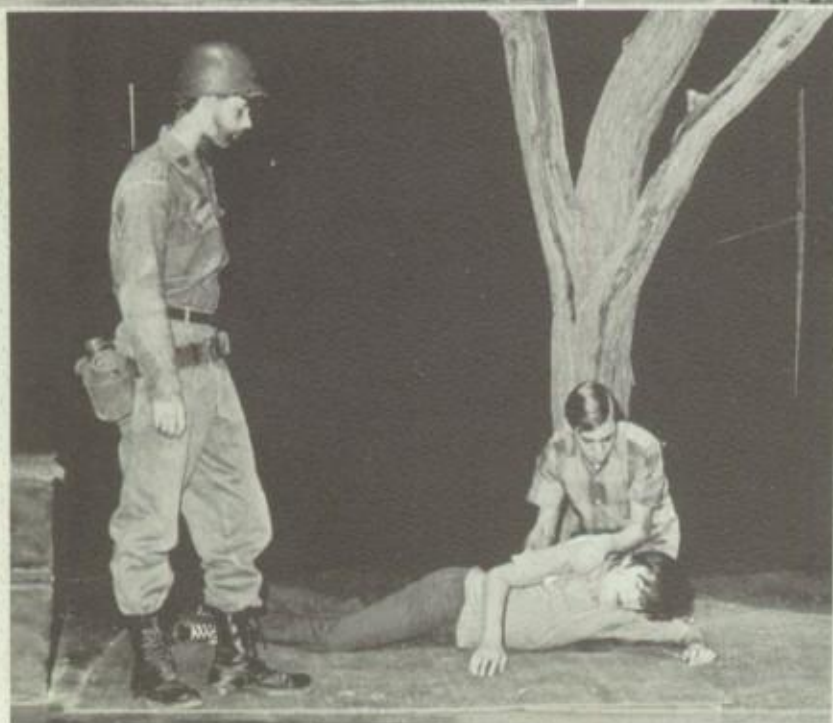

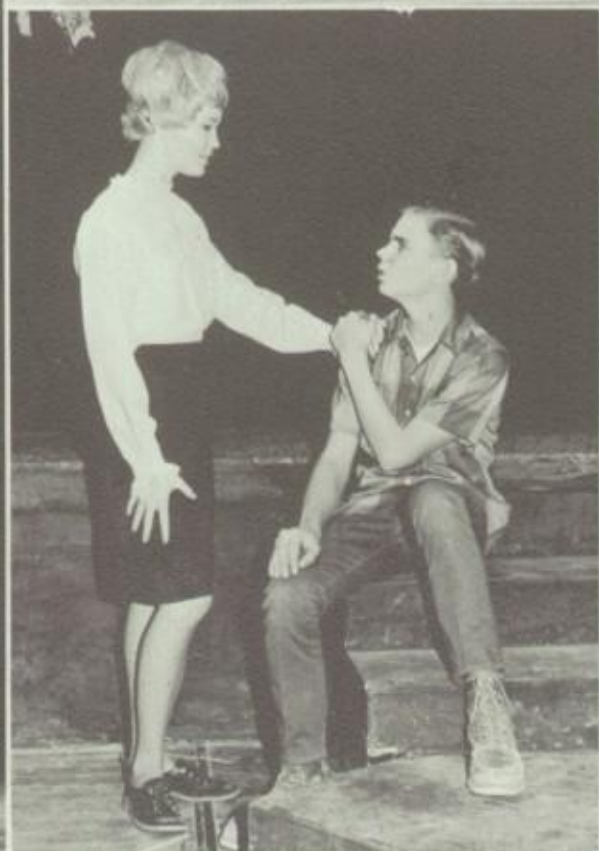

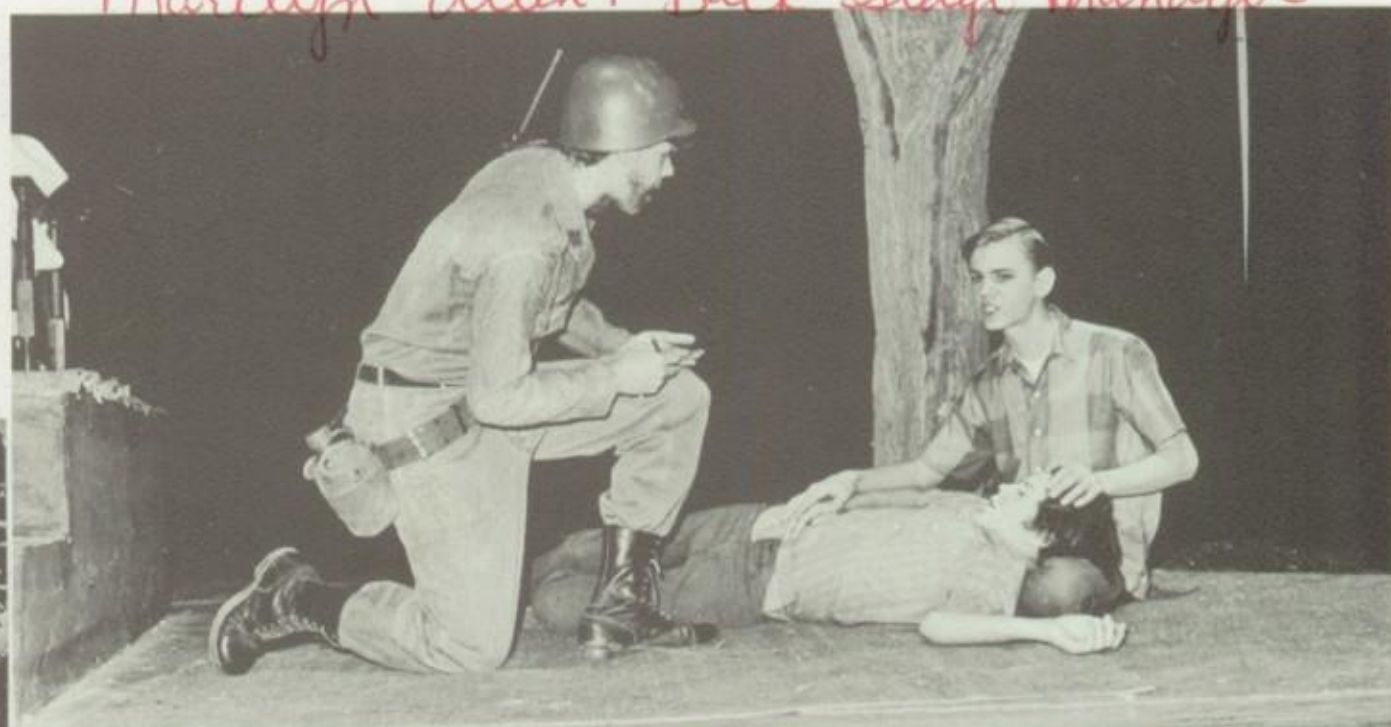

Always one of the most beautiful dances of the year, the Preference Ball of 1971-72 was no exception. Decorations, traditionally black and white, were planned by Esther Hunter, Gayla Bulloch, and Sharla Fiack. The Mohey Tawa were in charge of the dance and decorated under the direction of the chairmen. Lawrence Esplin and Mark Slack sang the theme song. The Preference Ball was very well attended.

Remember?

Summertree . . . reveals creative personalities.

Marilyn Allen: Back Stage Manager

Summertree, the first dramatic production of the year at CHS, set a standard of excellence for the drama department throughout the year. As a result of the endeavors of Miss Davis, director, and Cindy Wiebe, student director, the play was a successful display of talent and work.

Up The Down Staircase

... challenges the participants dramatic abilities.

Up The Down Staircase, with Miss Davis, director, and Marsha Ashworth, student director, was a very well presented production. The efforts of many talented people contributed greatly to the play's success and created an enjoyable production.

The Music Man

The Music Man, directed by Miss Davis, Mrs. Roper, and Mr. Matthews, was a tremendous success. JoLynn Stratton as Marian the librarian, and Kim Derbidge as the Music Man led a cast of sixty students in the performance. The performance was also enhanced by Nellie Hart and Carol Spencer at the piano, Robert Foisy at the drums, and the entire CHS band. Not only the actors but also all those who made costumes and props deserve thanks for their part in making this musical an outstanding event.

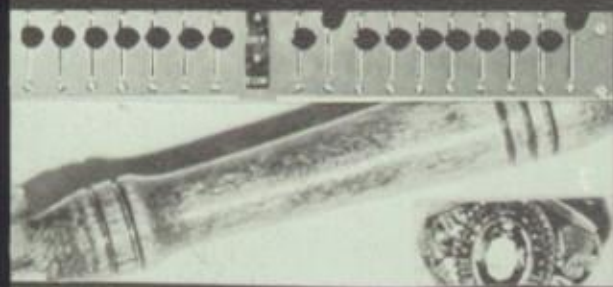

... proves both a challenge and success to its cast.

I am continually growing, toward something uniquely mine—something I alone want and need, something that I myself cannot yet comprehend.

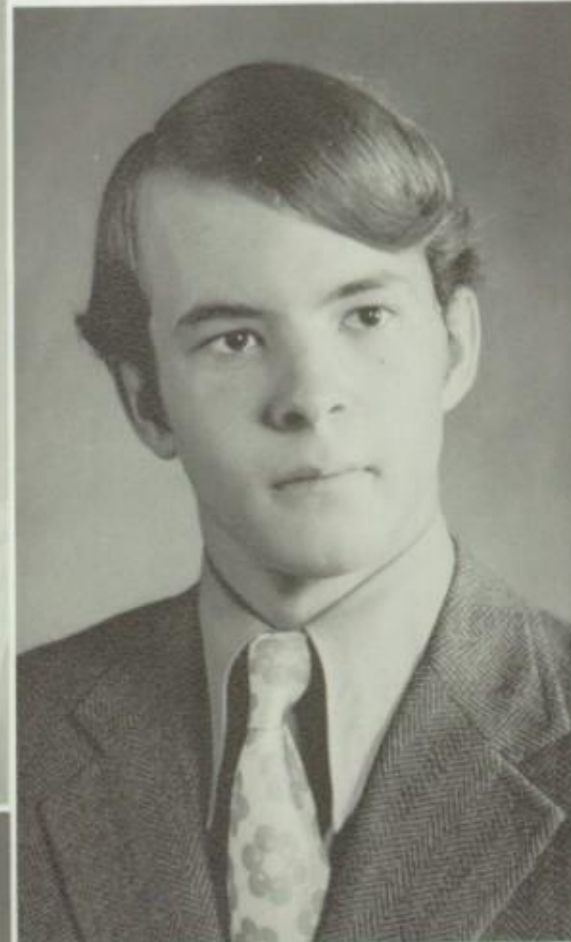

What am I seeking?
I really don't know for sure,
but I'll keep on working and someday,
someday I'll know, someday I'll know why I've worked so long and so hard without any reward.
I'll keep on working,
and tomorrow—
tomorrow I'll know what I want . . .

Girls' and Boys' Organization

The Girls' Organization officers for 1971-72 were: Cheri Gardner, Pres.; Necia Cooper, Vice Pres.; Claudia Boshell, Sec. They worked hard to unify the studentbody through their various activities.

... creates unity through activities.

Boys' Organization officers for 1971-72 were: Kent Bladen, Pres.; Mike Melherell, Vice Pres.; Paul Banaszynski, Sec. They worked with the Girls' Organization officers in planning their activities.

Girl Of The Year...

As Girl of the Year, Nellie Gai Hart has contributed both her time and talents to the improvement of Cedar High School. Aside from superior scholastic achievement, she has actively participated in the Dance Club, the French Club and the Nike Club, for which she has served as president during the past year. She also represented CHS at Utah Girls' State. One of Nellie's strengths has been in the music field. She has served as the A Capella accompanist for the past two years and also as an accompanist for the musical production her senior year. In addition, Nellie's willing attitude and warm personality made her an excellent choice for this honor.

Boy Of The Year....

Boy of the Year, Gene Cardon, has demonstrated a variety of talents throughout his three years at CHS. As a sophomore, he was the class president, and as a junior, the class senator. He has also served as an officer in the Key Club. Besides academic achievement, Gene has participated in many extra-curricular activities, including many assemblies. Athletically, Gene has excelled in both football and track and has been a participant in state meets. Gene's desire to excel and his ability to get along with people make him a well-rounded, outstanding student.

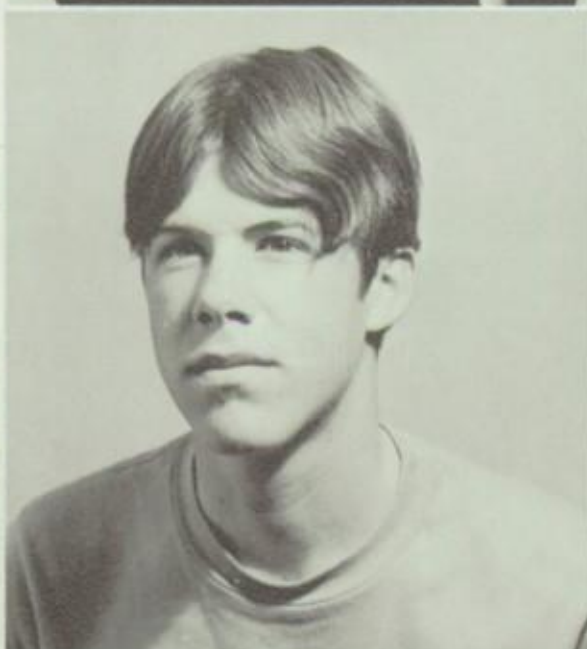

Girls' and Boys' Staters

Girls' and Boys' State are unique experiences in leadership, governmental functions, parliamentary procedure and patriotism. Those who attended the 1971 session gained a deeper appreciation for our free land as well as a greater insight into themselves. Boys' Staters this year were: Steve Munson, Brad Schmutz, Clark Segler, David Chatterley, Gary Hancock, David Haight and Dean Bickmore. Girls' Staters were: Ann Fenton, Sonja Sandberg, Nellie Hart, Laura Hulet and Ellen Whiting.

All-Staters . . . demonstrate unique abilities.

One of the finest opportunities in high school is being an All-State participant in band, orchestra or chorus. The students who are selected for this privilege are excellent in their fields and represent CHS well. Terrel Sandberg also represented CHS in State competition at the Science Symposium.

Committees

The Student Government Class was assigned the impossible task of coordinating student activities and opinions. The group was composed of club and class representatives, studentbody officers and petition members. The main responsibilities of the Student Government Class were: supervising Homecoming activities, reviewing and re-writing the Redmen Handbook, reviewing and changing school policies, coordinating election procedures and developing themselves as better leaders. David Haight, Studentbody President, led the class and Mr. Miller was the advisor.

David Haight directed the publicity committee as they attempted to inform all the students at CHS of the upcoming events.

... develop individual talents through student involvement.

The Assembly Committee, headed by Susan Barton, helped improve many of the assemblies presented at Cedar High. Their suggestions, along with the students' hard work, made their years' assemblies a great success.

The Showcase Committee, under the direction of Beth Schaack, provided many colorful displays. The ideas for these displays were centered around school dances and other activities.

ADMINISTRATION

Because you've shown me that you care,
I've learned to trust and believe you.
And because you're always there to help,
my appreciation and respect for you has grown.
You've taught me a lot—to do my best,
to work hard,
to satisfy myself.
You've taught me how to love, too.
Just because you have cared,
I care.

Administration . . . provides

Superintendent Morris and the Iron County School Board have shown their concern by working closely with Principal Woodbury and student leaders of CHS to assure a successful school year.

Holding the time-consuming job of Secretary was Mrs. Marilyn Webster. Her special talent was the personal interest she took in the students of Cedar High.

Also aiding in special departments were: Diane Holmes, Main Office; Kathy Adams, IMC; Jane Overman, Shop Department.

student opportunity.

Principal Rulon Woodbury has led the faculty and studentbody with determination and an eye on the future this 1971-'72 school year. Mr. Woodbury is the biggest supporter of Redmen activities.

Working with Principal Woodbury to keep CHS running smoothly was Vice-Principal, Mr. James Miller. His coordination of school functions is greatly appreciated.

Everyone at Cedar High enjoyed the cleanliness of our school this year. We would like to thank the custodians Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, Mr. Prince and Mr. Matheson for their great efforts.

The cooks at Cedar High Myrtle Bauer, Shirley Bowman, Mona Lister, Echo Pollock, Rose Workman, Marian Woolsey, and Nelda Fiack deserved a special thanks for making our lunches both hot and nutritious.

Dear Kim,

you are a real swell kid, & have really enjoyed having Acappella with you, your a real good friend. I never forget tour, it was cool, in case you haven't guessed my now, I'll tell you, all of those mysterious phone calls you received were from Bonnie & me. We were sure in a stupid mood that day. The best thing we did was the dry ice in the toilet, it sure looked funny, it sure surprised us to find it in ours. I wished I was in Aca-next year, but I not, so I hope I have some other classes with you. you be a good kid & don't get into trouble this summer. Have lots of fun, and I'll see ya around a good friend always
I am Mc.

Dear January Evans,

I have really had a great time this year especially in the drama department with you. You are a very talented person and a lot of fun. I hope you'll continue in drama but I know you will. Remember Mr. Pres, that I'd better be invited to the Thespian stuff, even if I can't come. Please write to me ok? 5660 S. Meadowlane Ogden UT. I am really going to miss you when I leave. I feel very honored to say I student directed two plays in which you were in. Congratulations your Best Actor award, you really deserve it! Thank you for all the help you've given me this year and again thanks for the birthday cake, something I'll never forget! Thank you for all the fun memories we've shared. May the best be yours for you truly deserve the very best! Good luck with the club next year. I hope it goes better than this year's! You have great ideas so the club should be great! Again good luck Kim!!! Gee this is hard! I hope you don't mind the witting but you know how it gets! Well, soldier keep the troupes marching onward! I wonder how Sadie will ever get along without out Samuel! Thanks for the help you gave me during the One-Act - That was a pain! I guess I'll shut up Harold so good bye! If I left out a play forgive me!

It took me about an hour to find this page. Gosh, I don't know what to say to you. I certainly wish this year wasn't over yet. Kim, you're one of the greatest people I know in all the world. I don't know what I would have done this year without you and the experiences we shared together. I thoroughly loved the Music Man. You were just fantastic in it. Everyone told me so. I was so pleased when Marian Hunt told me + you that she cried during the "Bridge scene". I didn't know we kissed so well. Also I have so many wonderful memories in Madrigals. I've really formed some lasting friendships in that class. Sometimes I wonder what I will do without you great kids. I'm sorry if I was ever cool or something during the Musical but truthfully I was kind of scared of you. But I know how stupid I was, now, Kim, you've really got a lot going for you. You've got more talents + good qualities than any other boy I've met in my whole life. You'll always be very special to me. I'll never forget you and I know I'll always love + respect you. I hope you'll continue to develop your beautiful voice. I know you'll go far. I know God is watching over you and directing you. Please, always listen to him. He knows what he is doing. Believe me, I know. May God always bless you. You deserve everything in the world. Love Jo Lynn Stratton
